

Publications on Alcohol Education

Alcohol: Support and Guidance for Schools - written and published by Alcohol Concern, 2001.

Abstract: Schools are required to provide drug (including alcohol and tobacco) education and have policies in place for managing drug-related incidents. So far, guidance for schools has tended to focus on illicit drugs. Alcohol: Support and Guidance for Schools concentrates on alcohol where its legal, cultural and social status requires a different approach to illicit drugs.

Available from: Alcohol Concern Bookshop

Summary available on Alcohol Concern website

Drunk in charge of a body? Personal relationships and alcohol, written by J Fraser, published by Brook Publications, 2000.

Abstract: This is an updated version of the pack produced in 1991. It has been rewritten and redesigned with the collaboration of the Health Education Authority and Alcohol Concern. It is designed for use by teachers and other professionals working with young people aged thirteen and over.

Available from: Alcohol Concern Library or Alcohol Concern Bookshop, price £22 plus £2.95 p&p

A-Z. The alcohol education resource directory. Teaching and curriculum support: what's available and how to get hold of it, written by K St.John-Brooks, published by: Portman Group, 2000.

Abstract: In this resource list can be found books, videos, teaching packs, websites, leaflets, games, theatre-in-education groups and other useful items, all of which were available when this was published. Nearly two hundred resources are listed, for use with the new Personal, Social and Health Education curriculum.

Available from: Alcohol Concern Library

Guidelines on drugs and alcohol policies for higher education, written by the Committee of Vice-Chancellors and Principals of the Universities of the United Kingdom, AMOSSHE / SCOP, published by Committee of Vice-Chancellors and Principals (1997)

Abstract: This publication summarises the issues facing students and staff in higher education in the 1990s, and outlines the findings of a number of studies on the incidence of substance misuse among students.

Available from: Alcohol Concern Library

Alcohol: a quick guide, written by G Beales, 1995

Abstract: This guide for educational establishments provides an easy step-by-step approach to the development of a consistent whole school/college approach to alcohol education. It covers the physiological, psychological and social effects of alcohol and gives advice on recognising problem drinking and on developing an effective teaching programme.

Available from: Alcohol Concern Library or AI, price £7 plus p&p

'We've seen people drinking...' A consideration of the issues and approaches relating to alcohol education and primary schools, written by J Lloyd et al, published by the Portman Group, 1994.

Available from: Alcohol Concern Library

Alcohol Education Project. Confidential report presented to Alcohol Concern, written by J Balding and D Bish, published by: SHEU, School of Education, University of Exeter, 1993.

Abstract: This survey looks at the value of alcohol education in secondary schools, questioning why young people drink and in which social situations, parental awareness, the link between alcohol and anti-social behaviour, and the level of general knowledge about alcohol and its effects. Includes role-play exercises, cross-curricular modules etc.

Available from: Alcohol Concern Library

Other useful publications

Please note: these publications are not specifically about alcohol education but may still be useful as the general principles will apply.

Making the most of visitors. Using outside agencies in school drug education, written by TACADE / London Drug Policy Forum, published by TACADE, 1997.

Abstract: This handbook is written for schools which are contemplating using a visitor from an external agency as part of their drug education programme.

Available from: Alcohol Concern Library

The right choice. Guidance on selecting drug education materials for schools, written by R Joyce, published by The Standing Conference on Drug Abuse (SCODA), 1998.

Abstract: This guide provides advice on choosing, developing and evaluating resource materials that support effective drug education.

Available from: Alcohol Concern Library or the DrugScope Bookshop, priced £12

The right approach: quality standards in drug education, written by R Joyce, published by The Standing Conference on Drug Abuse (SCODA), 1999.

Abstract: A tool to help teachers develop the quality of their drug education. Identifies quality standards against which a school can plan programmes.

Available from: Alcohol Concern Library or the DrugScope Bookshop, priced £12

The right responses: managing and making policy for drug related incidents in schools, written by R Joyce, published by The Standing Conference on Drug Abuse (SCODA), 1999.

Abstract: The right responses: managing and making policy for drug related incidents in schools. Detailed guidance and support for schools on writing and reviewing drug policies. It draws on specially commissioned research to identify the content of an effective policy and sets out a range of innovative ways in which schools can respond to drug related incidents.

Available from: Alcohol Concern Library or the DrugScope Bookshop , priced £12